ORDER:

In the circumstances stated by the Chief Conservator of Forests in his letter cited above, the Government direct that the 24 approved probationers in the category of Foresters and Forest Guards who were recruited after the 1st January 1942 and who are considered suitable for training deputed for training at the Forest Guards' School during the period of one year from the 1st April 1948. During the period of such training they should be treated as on duty within the meaning of Fundamental Rule9(6) (b). Under rule 20 of the Fundamental Rules, these candidates will be permitted to draw the pay of their officiating appointments to which they would have been eligible had they not been so deputed.
